This is one of the first tunes Charlie Acuff learned to play from his grandfather Charlie Boyd Acuff. A “josie” is a long cape with an additional cape attached to the outside.

Lyrics are sung in the second half of the A-part and the first half of the B-Part:

(A-Part 2nd half)

Where’s that girl, where’s she gone,
Where’s the girl with the josie on?

(B-Part 1st half)

Stole my heart, away she’s gone,
Where’s the girl with the josie on?
